

Job's Daughters?

What's that?

Job's Daughters is a girls' leadership organization.

The members learn important life skills through planning & participating in service and fun activities.

Membership is made up of girls between the ages of 10-20 who are related to a member of the Masonic Fraternity. Meetings are held twice a month, with additional activities each month. No activity is mandatory. However, the more you participate, the more you gain... For girls who are around the ages 8 - 9, there is a premembership program available...Jobie-to-Bee.

Friendships, Self-confidence, FUN, Organizational skills, Responsibility, FUN, New experiences and Travel, to name a few...did we mention FUN? In addition to fun, responsible citizenship is encouraged through community service activities, such as volunteering at area nursing homes, community clean up days, and assisting at charity events. In addition, members support Job's Daughters International charity project, the Hearing Impaired Kids Endowment (HIKE Fund). Raising funds to assist children in need of hearing assistant devices.
